Consultant - Plant Breeding (Southeast Asia)

This position will conduct and co-ordinate IRRI's breeding activities in Cambodia as part of the USAID-funded project. To engage and collaborate with Cambodia NARES partners. The candidate will primarily facilitate introduction, evaluation and release of stress tolerant varieties in Cambodia.

Qualification Requirements

- PhD in Plant Breeding with at least three years of post-PhD experience in a variety development capacity
- Proven ability or potential to perform in a multidisciplinary and multicultural environment
- Demonstrated research management experience
- Demonstrated analytical skills
- Excellent organizational skills
- Experience with rice; work experience in a developing country environment, especially in South East Asia (preferred)

Application process

For more information about the position and to submit application, please visit jobs.irri.org (go to search/visit the IRRI Job Board and look for this position). Closing date is on 31 October 2016. This position is based at IRRI’s Country Office in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

IRRI is an Equal Opportunity Employer that values diversity. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Join Us to Deliver Rice Science for a Better World

International Rice Research Institute (IRRI) is seeking for talented candidates to work at its Country Office in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. Supported by the CGIAR, IRRI is a non-profit, publicly funded international organization engaged in the research and development of rice-related technologies for poor farmers. We provide world class facilities, highly competitive benefits, and gender-sensitive environment.